Here’s your chance to tell the State what you think about the services you currently receive, used to get, or were never able to get.

People with mental health and substance abuse issues (aka “consumers”) are the soul of the NM BH Collaborative. Collaborative member agencies want to know what you and your peers think is important as they improve the way services in NM are delivered.

This meeting is your chance!