FREE!
Early Childhood Mental Health Services Summits:
Best Practices & Community-Based Systems of Care
Sponsor: NM Behavioral Health Collaborative
CEUs & Refreshments
Win a $200.00 gift card for Southwest Airlines

What is in it for Your Community? Find Out!
Farmington   San Juan College   June 26
Las Cruces    NMSU     June 28
Albuquerque   TVI-Workforce Training Center  June 30

Early Childhood Mental Health National & Local Experts:

8:30-11:45  Registration & Refreshments Provided
  ▪ Behavioral Health Systems Changes in New Mexico:
    Jack Callaghan, CYFD
  ▪ National Systems of Care in Early Childhood Mental Health:
    Neal Horen, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C

Refreshment Break Provided
  ▪ Best Practices in State Implementation Models
    Mary Claire Heffron, Oakland Children's Hospital, CA

11:45-1:00  Lunch On Your Own
1:00-4:00   ▪ The Vision for NM-Definition, Services & Reimbursement
              Steve Johnson, All Faiths Receiving Home; BH Planning Council Children's Sub-Committee
  ▪ Ideas & Next Steps: The Public Asks the Experts
    What Communities Can Expect: Follow Up Consultation & Support for Early Childhood MH

Refreshment Break Provided
  ▪ Featured NM Best Practices in Early Childhood Mental Health
    Deborah Harris-, Las Cumbres Early Childhood Mental Health Institute, & NMAIMH
  ▪ The Vision for NM ValueOptions Role in Behavioral Health
    Chris Carson, Medical Director, ValueOptions New Mexico

Who should attend? Everyone interested in Early Childhood Mental Health, including but not limited to mental health (child & adult), early childhood education, medicine & health, social work, counseling, juvenile justice, protective services, community-based services, domestic violence, substance abuse, child care, housing-homeless, corrections, law enforcement, developmental disabilities, residential programs.

RSVP: Regina Dickens: solutions4teams@msn.com & in the subject line enter either: Farmington, Las Cruces or Albuquerque Summit OR call 505-858-3372
You will receive: detailed agenda, directions, & presenter’s bios

Organized by:
The New Mexico Association for Infant Mental Health (NMAIMH)
www.healthyhappybabies.com