Planning Council Team: Chris Wendel, Chair BHPC; Gail Falconer, Cindy Collyer, Frankie Scofield, Pamela Holland, Karen Meador
State Staff: Letty Rutledge, Suzanne Pearlman

Local Collaboratives were each asked by the Collaborative to prioritize “the top 5 local services in your area for both children and adult” Additionally, the LCs were asked to identify one area of service development that would most benefit their community if new federal, state or other funding were available.

The Planning Council Legislative ad hoc team summarized the findings as follows:

In general, the most frequently noted services across the state for adults and children were (in order):
1. Prevention Services
2. Substance Abuse Services (tied with Prevention)
3. Children’s Services
4. Clinical Services

Within each of the named categories listed above, the requested services included the following:

Prevention: 9 LCs (50%) listed Prevention services as a priority
- Funding for programs
- Gang Intervention
- Substance Abuse prevention

Substance Abuse Services: 9 LCs (50%) listed Substance Abuse as a priority
- Residential and Intensive Outpatient
- Prevention and Treatment
- DWI
- Addiction

Children’s Services: LCs reported these under many categories but specifically aimed for children
- Prevention Programs
- Residential Services
- CCSS
- Youth in Transition

Clinical Services – for Adults and Children
- Psychiatric
- Counseling
- Outpatient Therapy
If additional state or federal funding were available, the top needed services to maintain:
Five LCs listed the following services: Housing, Crisis, Employment, and Transportation.

The five Native American Local Collaboratives listed the following categories specific to their LCs:
- Community Programs
- Revenue Generation
- Inpatient Treatment
- SANE
- School Programs for Native Children who Attend off reservation Schools
- Technical Assistance for the Children’s Code
- Safe Houses

In conclusion, the BHPC Legislative ad hoc team recommends that the Purchasing Collaborative accept the top 4 recommended priorities for the 2011 Legislative Budget considerations – with the additional considerations to the special rural needs of the native American local collaboratives.

The LC priorities are also attached as were received.
